

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is an AQ10 Base Seal?

An AQ10 Base Seal is a trim to support AQ1000 cladding onto shower trays or baths.

What are AQ10 Base Seals used for?

AQ10 Base Seals are used to provide a seal along bottom of AQ1000 cladding.

What is the best thing about an AQ10 Base Seals?

The best thing about AQ10 Base Seals is it supports the cladding and keeps it off the shower tray/bath and allows water to drain through if needed.

Why should end users use STORM's AQ10 Base Seals instead of a competitors?

End users should use STORM's AQ10 Base Seals instead of a competitors because this product is readily available in stock.

Who are the type of customers that commonly use AQ10 Base Seals (which industries/sectors/job types)

The customers that would use this product are plumbers, decorators and maintenance.

Where are AQ10 Base Seals most commonly installed?

AQ10 Base Seals are most commonly installed when AQ1000 cladding is being installed into wet rooms.

When should AQ10 Base Seals be considered and installed?

An AQ10 Base Seals should be considered and installed when AQ1000 is being used on top of a shower tray or bath.